

Professional, Experienced HR & Business Advice and Services.

Are you a small to medium sized employer who needs HR advice and support delivered in a way that suits your business and at a cost you can afford? - then read on!

Who is it for?

HR Business Partner is aimed at the small to medium sized Employer with limited HR expertise. There is a plethora of Employment Legislation, best practice guidelines and lots of conflicting information about the application of employment legislation in the workplace. For a Business Manager trying to grow and develop their business keeping abreast of this can be time consuming with very little or no return on the resources invested.

Benefits:

What are the Benefits:

- HR Business Partner offers -
- ◆ Expert Human Resource advice and support delivered and costed in a way that suits your business.
 - ◆ An easy way to keep up to date with legislative changes without having to attend seminars or research these topics yourself.
 - ◆ An experienced Business Manager who understands what it is like to run a business and can provide advice & support across a range of Business Areas - Business Strategy, Organisation Development, Continuous Improvement and Lean as well as provide the full HR remit
 - ◆ A service that offers a Return on Investment by showing how you can control & reduce labour costs and maximise output.
